

13 COORDINATE GEOMETRY

Every eighteen seconds, a plane lands at or departs O'Hare International Airport in Chicago. Modern instruments and a knowledge of coordinate geometry enable air traffic controllers to track and direct these planes safely and efficiently.

